Reading for NAPLAN:

Q.A.R. Strategy to Improve Reading Results

The Question-Answer Relationship (QAR) strategy presents a three-way relationship between questions, text content, and reader knowledge. This strategy empowers students as it defines for them the relationship between questions and their answers. There are four basic types of question and answer relationships. Right There, Think and Search: are found in the text. Author and Me, On My Own: are found in the head. Students who understand how questions are written are better prepared to answer them correctly.
